Dear Ronald

PM 1267 CIP Finland
Our File: 29136

I enclose the translation of a further official letter issued by the Finnish Patent Office. The term for reply will expire 24 March 1992.

After dealing in the previous official letter with a number of generally formal objections, the Examiner has reverted to the Roselius patent (US 4153063) and again rejected the main claim with some more detailed explanation of his reasons.

We have already discussed Roselius fairly exhaustively, and our Finnish associate reports that she has ample information about the reference itself. But she would welcome any more specific comments we may have on the Examiner's present reasons for rejecting the application, as explained in the latest official action. Any comments you may have along these lines would be welcome.

Yours sincerely

J. H. Bass
